To the President of the United States.

Sir:

The Major General Commanding the Army having reported that the military reservation of Fort McDowell, Arizona, is no longer required for military purposes, and the troops having been entirely withdrawn therefrom, I have the honor to recommend that the same be transferred and turned over to the Department of the Interior, under the act approved July 5, 1884, entitled "An act to provide for the disposal of abandoned and useless military reservations," for disposition under the provisions of the aforesaid act, or as may be otherwise provided by law.

Very respectfully,

Acting Secretary of War.
